

Real Madrid Estadio Santiago Bernabéu

Libro 1

¡HALA MADRID!

Nombrado por la FIFA como “el mejor y más exitoso club de fútbol del siglo XX” y apoyado con pasión por 600 millones de seguidores por todo el orbe, el Real Madrid Club de Fútbol es uno de los nombres más notorios de la escena futbolística mundial. Fundado en 1902 y con sede en el corazón de la capital española, el Real Madrid sigue estando bajo la propiedad y administración de sus más de 90.000 socios.

El Estadio Santiago Bernabéu, hogar del club con capacidad para 81.044 asistentes, ha sido el escenario de muchas de las legendarias victorias de los blancos, así como de incontables finales de la UEFA y la FIFA. Ahora que el club está por celebrar su 120 aniversario, no podría haber un mejor momento para presentar la versión LEGO® de este emblemático templo del fútbol. Esperamos que lo disfrutes.

La construcción de una leyenda

Cuando se eligió a Santiago Bernabéu como presidente del club en 1943, su sueño era construir un estadio de vanguardia con capacidad para 100.000 aficionados. Los críticos calificaron su proyecto como “demasiado ambicioso” e incluso “faraónico”, pero Bernabéu perseveró y, después de tres años de obras, el Nuevo Estadio de Chamartín se inauguraba en diciembre de 1947. Se trataba de uno de los campos de juego más modernos del mundo, y sería testigo de algunos de los episodios más brillantes de la historia del Real Madrid. En 1955, el club decidió celebrar la visión de Santiago Bernabéu rebautizando el estadio en su honor.

Folletos distribuidos entre los socios y los integrantes de la junta directiva

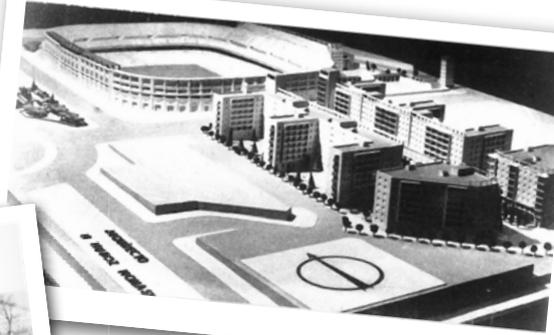

“*Madrid,
Madrid,
Madrid.
¡HALA MADRID!
Y nada más,
y nada más,
¡HALA MADRID!*”

Himno entonado por los seguidores del Real Madrid

Una historia de éxito

Modelo del proyecto del estadio
Nuevo Chamartín.

El club cambia su nombre a Real Madrid después de que el rey Alfonso XIII le otorgara el título de Real.

El nombre oficial era Campo del Real Madrid Fútbol Club, pero los fans lo llamaron Chamartín.

1902

Se funda el Madrid Football Club el 6 de marzo de 1902. Celebra sus partidos en los terrenos aledaños a la antigua plaza de toros de la ciudad y sus jugadores usan un bar cercano como vestuario.

1920

1924

En 1924, el club construye el Viejo Chamartín, un histórico campo deportivo con capacidad para 15.000 espectadores.

1932

El Real Madrid gana su primer título de liga nacional tras la fundación de la liga profesional La Liga, que tuvo lugar en 1929.

1939

Después de su remodelación, el estadio Viejo Chamartín reabre sus puertas con capacidad para 25.000 asistentes.

Sabino Barinaga marcó el primer tanto en este estadio en su partido inaugural frente al Os Belenenses.

El estadio Nuevo Chamartín se inaugura con una victoria de 3-1 sobre el Os Belenenses de Portugal.

Comienzan las obras de la segunda fase de la ampliación del estadio para aumentar su capacidad a 125.000 butacas.

1943

El exjugador Santiago Bernabéu es elegido presidente del club.

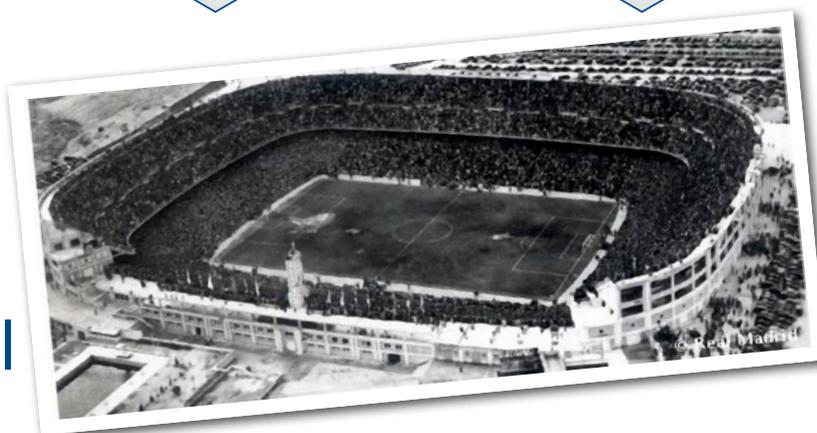

1947

1952

1955

Los miembros del club deciden por unanimidad cambiar el nombre del campo a Estadio Santiago Bernabéu.

El Real Madrid gana la Copa de Europa en su propio estadio después de derrotar a la Fiorentina por 2-0.

1957

Con la nueva iluminación, el Bernabéu se convierte en el estadio mejor iluminado de Europa.

1957

1960

El Real Madrid vence 5-1 al club argentino Peñarol en la final de la Copa Intercontinental.

1969

Inauguración de la iluminación exterior alrededor del estadio.

1972

El 25 aniversario del estadio se celebra con la instalación de un marcador eléctrico, el primero en un club español.

1980

Comienza la remodelación del estadio en preparación del Mundial de 1982. Se instala un toldo metálico que cubre el 75 % de las localidades a la vez que el aforo se reduce a 98.776 asistentes.

El Bernabéu alberga el partido final de la Copa Mundial entre Alemania e Italia, en el que los italianos se coronarían campeones después de ganar 3-1 en un estremecedor encuentro.

1982

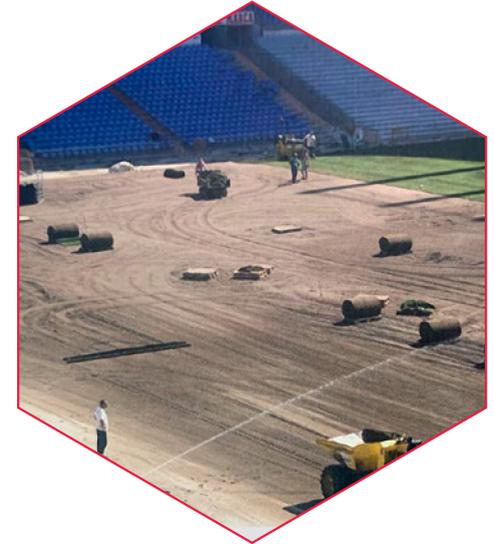

1992

Comienzan los trabajos de renovación para modernizar el estadio. Se aumenta la altura del toldo instalado en 1982 a la vez que se incorporan 20.000 butacas nuevas.

El Real Madrid celebra el 50 aniversario del estadio ganando el título de liga del país.

1997

Se instala una nueva superficie híbrida, que combina césped natural con 17 millones de fibras sintéticas.

2002

Celebración del título de liga nacional de 1996-97 en el Estadio Santiago Bernabéu.

“ El escenario de las emociones que marcará el futuro del Real Madrid, el mejor estadio del mundo”.

Florentino Pérez, presidente del club

La UEFA otorga al Santiago Bernabéu la categoría de Estadio de Élite, el mayor rango posible y un requisito indispensable para seguir albergando grandes finales.

El estadio alberga el partido final de la Liga de Campeones entre el Inter de Milán y el Bayern de Múnich, que culmina con una victoria 2-0 para los italianos.

2007

2010

2018

2020

En un hecho histórico, la final de la Copa Libertadores se celebra por primera vez fuera del continente americano. El River Plate se consagra campeón tras vencer por 3-1 al Boca Juniors.

Comienzan los trabajos para reformar por completo el Bernabéu. Los planes incluyen aumentar la altura del estadio en 10 m e incorporar un techo retráctil.

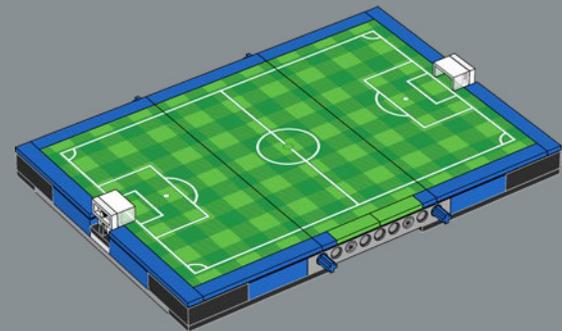

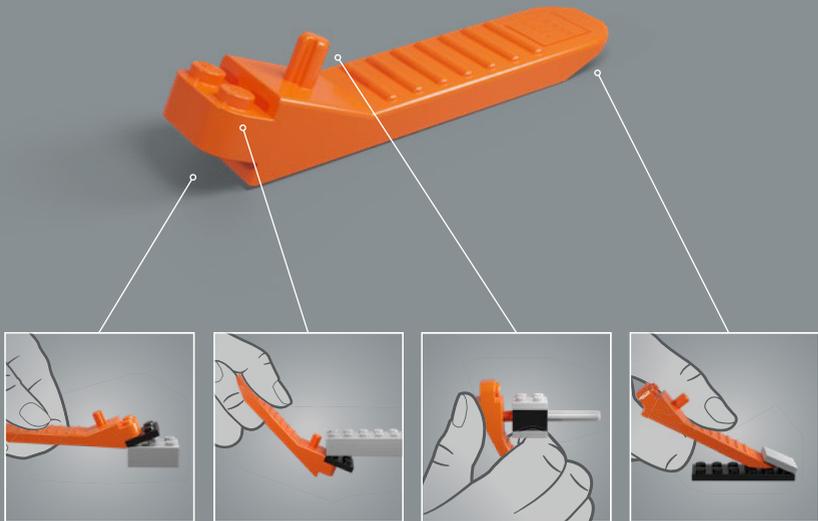

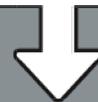

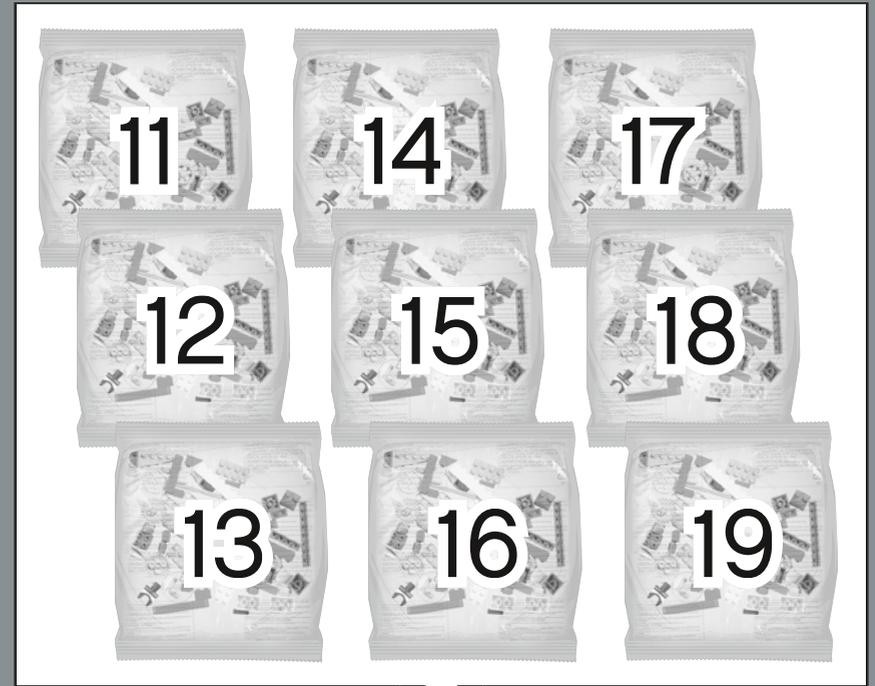

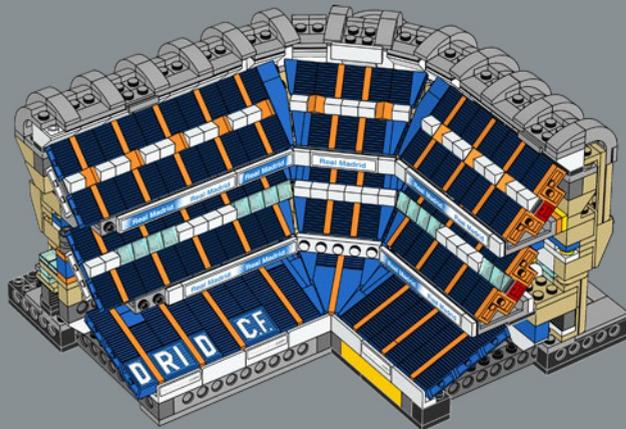

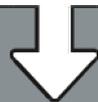

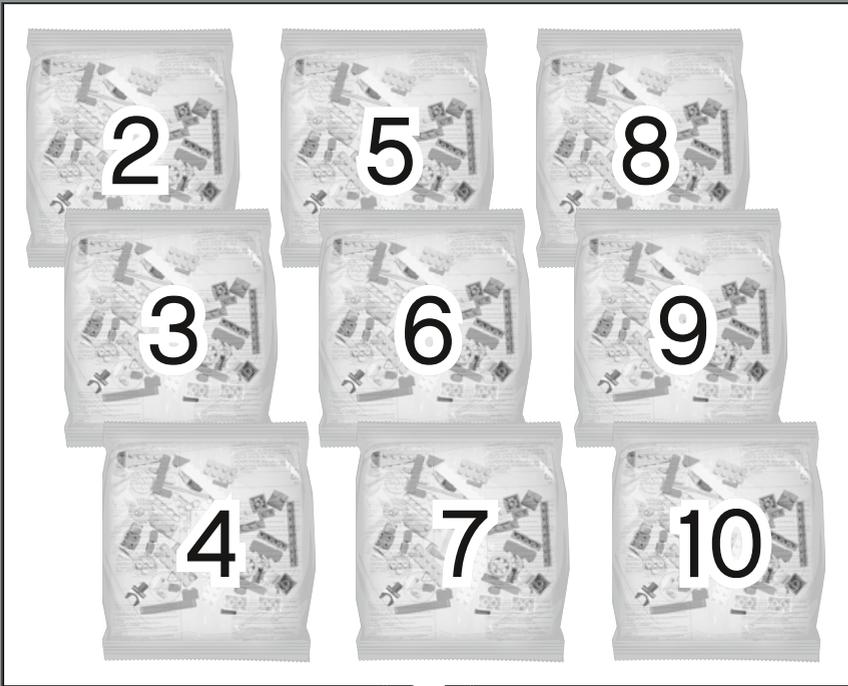

Impresiones del equipo de diseño

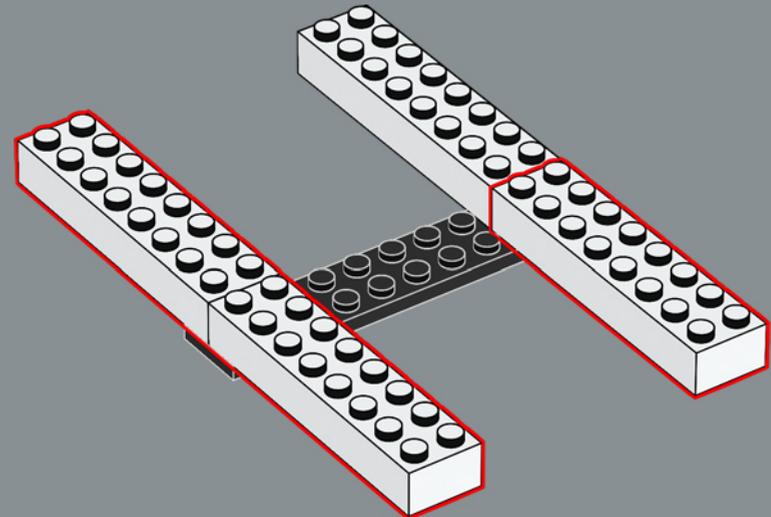

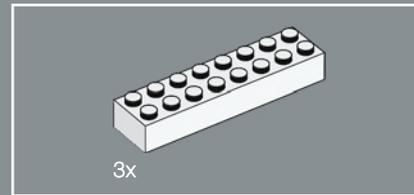

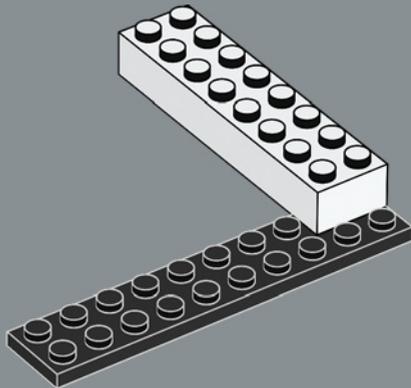

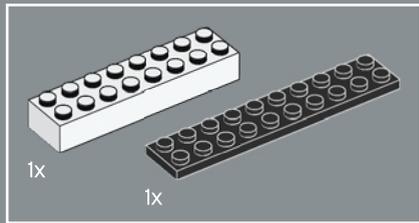

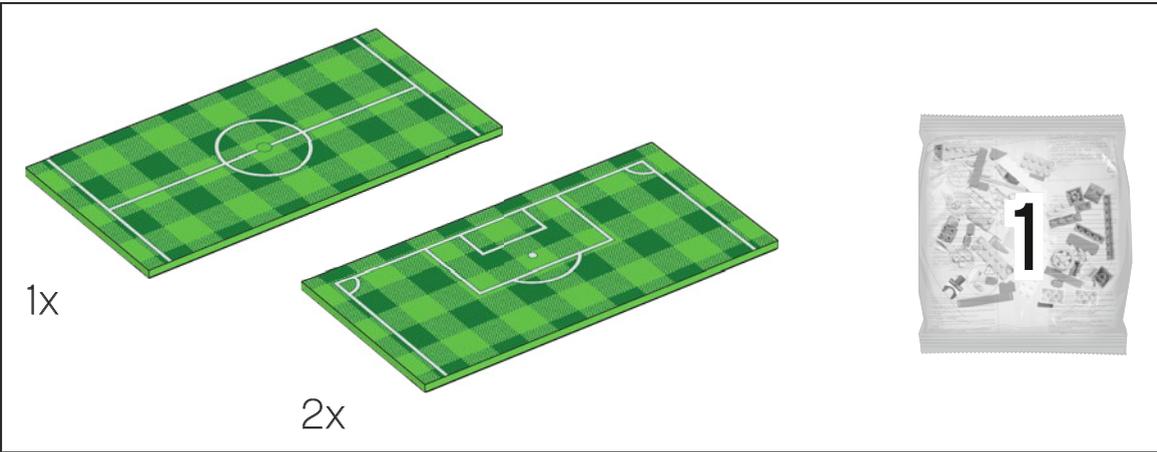

Uno de los aspectos más emocionantes de este modelo fue explorar la historia del Estadio Santiago Bernabéu. El estadio está repleto de detalles imperceptibles que datan de eras pasadas. Construir el primer nivel de gradas representa un viaje atrás en el tiempo, al estadio de los años 40. La galería es un eco de los años 50 y el techo data de los 80 y del Mundial que aquí se celebró. El edificio entero alberga los recuerdos de sus seguidores, la emoción y las lágrimas a los que han dado lugar los encuentros disputados en este terreno de juego a lo largo de 75 años.
